... Council

set up later if there is sufficient interest.

IN FURTHER action, the council voted unanimously to pay $1,794 to the firm of Koebig and Koebig for the preliminary construction plans for the completion of the second floor of the Torrance Police Station. Total cost for completion, including mechanical gear, is estimated at $100,000.

Councilmen also refused to pay a claim against the city for flood damage incurred during the recent storm, and referred the request to the city attorney.

The claim was from Mrs. H. T. Flattery, who owns a building at 2416 Amsler St. Several building owners along Amsler Street have filed damage claims against the city because they allege a storm drain was plugged up, causing their buildings to flood.

Councilmen unanimously approved franchises for the Southern California Edison Co. and the Standard Gas Co. to construct, operate, and maintain a system of pipelines for the transportation of hydrocarbon substances in the City of Torrance.

Surviving him are his widow, Billie; a son, Don Townsend of Lomita; a daughter, Patricia Wall of Torrance; three brothers; five sisters; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services for Hans Hastings, who died Thursday, will be conducted Monday at 11 a.m. at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel.

Mr. Hastings, who lived at 2623 Apple Ave., was born Oct. 1, 1910, in North Carolina and had lived in Torrance for the past 40 years. He was employed for 12 years by the city of Torrance.
